Program Overview

The Doctor of Ministry in Prophetic and Seer Studies is a professional doctorate for leaders who train prophetic communities and bring a prophetic voice to culture. Students compare prophetic traditions, study visions and consciousness in ancient texts, and learn to build healthy prophetic communities.

How EACU Is Different

Prophetic ministry is examined from every side: the prophets and seers of Scripture, the visionary tradition of 1 Enoch and apocalyptic literature, the prophetic life of the early church, and the practice of prophecy across traditions today. Students learn to test what they receive, recognize patterns, and minister with accountability.

At the doctoral level, EACU students become the ones who walk others through the evidence. Every course requires students to examine a question from every side, then build and defend their own position, and the doctoral project turns that work into something that can be taught, published, or put into practice.

> Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Program Outcomes

1. Compare prophetic traditions across Christianity.
2. Bring a responsible prophetic voice to culture.
3. Evaluate visions and dreams in Scripture and ancient texts.
4. Train and oversee prophetic communities.
5. Design, conduct, and defend an original doctoral project.
