Program Overview

The Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Teaching and Education prepares students to teach the Bible and lead education ministries. Students learn how adults, youth, and children learn, how to teach with the SCORRE method, how to design curriculum and assessments, and how to teach online.

How EACU Is Different

EACU trains teachers the way it teaches: every lesson walks learners through the evidence and invites them to reach their own conclusions. Students learn to design courses with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning, and to teach others to think rather than simply repeat.

Every EACU degree walks students through the evidence from every side and asks them to reach, write, and defend their own conclusions, while remaining grounded in the foundation of truth. Students learn to distinguish what the biblical text states, what ancient and later traditions add, and what interpreters have concluded.

Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Please note: This degree prepares students to teach in ministry, church, and Christian education settings. It does not lead to state teacher certification or licensure. Some private and Christian schools require state certification or a degree from a recognized accredited institution.

Program Outcomes

1. Teach the Bible effectively using the SCORRE method.
2. Design lessons for visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learners.
3. Develop curriculum and assessments.
4. Teach effectively online.
5. Lead education ministries.
