Program Overview

The Master of Arts in Kingdom Leadership and Ethics prepares leaders to shape organizational culture, govern ethically, lead change, and develop other leaders.

How EACU Is Different

Leadership is examined from every side: what Scripture shows through leaders who stood and fell, what research shows about organizations, and what ethics require when power is at stake. Titles do not create character, so students develop leadership grounded in stewardship, integrity, and service.

At the graduate level, students weigh the biblical text, ancient witnesses, research, and later interpretation side by side, then build and defend their own position with scholarly rigor while remaining grounded in the foundation of truth.

> Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Program Outcomes

1. Articulate a theology of leadership.
2. Shape healthy organizational culture.
3. Govern with ethics and accountability.
4. Lead organizational change.
5. Complete and defend graduate-level research or an applied project.
