Program Overview

The Bachelor of Arts in Evangelism and Missions prepares students to share the gospel, make disciples, and serve across cultures. Students study personal and public evangelism, the work of the Holy Spirit, intercultural communication, apologetics, missions history, and digital and marketplace evangelism.

How EACU Is Different

Students learn to share the gospel in a multi-faith world by first understanding it from every side. They study other belief systems fairly, engage hard questions honestly, and practice evangelism that respects people while presenting the gospel with clarity.

Every EACU degree walks students through the evidence from every side and asks them to reach, write, and defend their own conclusions, while remaining grounded in the foundation of truth. Students learn to distinguish what the biblical text states, what ancient and later traditions add, and what interpreters have concluded.

> Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Program Outcomes

1. Present the gospel clearly in personal and public settings.
2. Depend on the work of the Holy Spirit in evangelism.
3. Communicate across cultures and belief systems.
4. Disciple new believers.
5. Lead evangelism in digital and marketplace settings.
