Program Overview

The Hybrid Dual Degree pairs the Master of Arts in Kingdom Leadership and Ethics with the Doctor of Ministry in Apostolic Leadership in one continuous program of 63 credits instead of 72. The Master of Arts in Kingdom Leadership and Ethics prepares leaders to shape organizational culture, govern ethically, lead change, and develop other leaders. The Doctor of Ministry in Apostolic Leadership is a professional doctorate for leaders who oversee movements and shape culture.

How EACU Is Different

Leadership is examined from every side: what Scripture shows through leaders who stood and fell, what research shows about organizations, and what ethics require when power is at stake. Titles do not create character, so students develop leadership grounded in stewardship, integrity, and service.

At the doctoral level, EACU students become the ones who walk others through the evidence. Every course requires students to examine a question from every side, then build and defend their own position, and the doctoral project turns that work into something that can be taught, published, or put into practice.

> How the dual degree works. Nine doctoral credits count toward both degrees. The master's degree is conferred after the Master's Portion and the Shared Courses are complete (36 credits). The Doctor of Ministry is conferred after the Doctoral Portion is complete (36 doctoral credits, including the shared courses). Students need a completed bachelor's degree to enter.

Program Outcomes

1. Articulate a theology of leadership.
2. Shape healthy organizational culture.
3. Govern with ethics and accountability.
4. Compare apostolic leadership across traditions.
5. Lead apostolic influence in society and culture.
6. Develop five-fold leaders.
