Program Overview

The Doctor of Ministry in Deliverance and Spiritual Warfare is a professional doctorate for leaders who teach, train, and oversee deliverance ministry. Students study principalities and powers, the connection between deliverance, trauma, and healing, and global perspectives on the spirit world.

How EACU Is Different

Deliverance is often taught from one person's experience. EACU examines it from every side: what Scripture states, what 1 Enoch and other ancient texts describe about the spirit world, how the church has practiced deliverance across history and traditions, and where mental health care must be part of the picture. All power originates with the Most High, and students learn to minister from that foundation.

At the doctoral level, EACU students become the ones who walk others through the evidence. Every course requires students to examine a question from every side, then build and defend their own position, and the doctoral project turns that work into something that can be taught, published, or put into practice.

> Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Please note: Students learn to discern between spiritual, emotional, and medical needs and to refer to licensed professionals when appropriate. This degree does not lead to state licensure or professional certification in counseling or health care.

2. Evaluate research on deliverance, trauma, and healing.
