Program Overview

The Hybrid Dual Degree pairs the Master of Arts in Kingdom Business and Entrepreneurship with the Doctor of Ministry in Kingdom Leadership and Ethics in one continuous program of 63 credits instead of 72. The Master of Arts in Kingdom Business and Entrepreneurship prepares leaders to steward resources, lead strategic marketing and financial management, and scale businesses and social enterprises. The Doctor of Ministry in Kingdom Leadership and Ethics is a professional doctorate for senior leaders.

How EACU Is Different

Business is ministry in the marketplace. Students examine business practices from every side, weighing what Scripture teaches about work, wealth, and stewardship alongside proven business methods, and build ventures that are profitable, ethical, and purposeful.

At the doctoral level, EACU students become the ones who walk others through the evidence. Every course requires students to examine a question from every side, then build and defend their own position, and the doctoral project turns that work into something that can be taught, published, or put into practice.

> How the dual degree works. Nine doctoral credits count toward both degrees. The master's degree is conferred after the Master's Portion and the Shared Courses are complete (36 credits). The Doctor of Ministry is conferred after the Doctoral Portion is complete (36 doctoral credits, including the shared courses). Students need a completed bachelor's degree to enter.

Program Outcomes

1. Apply kingdom economics and stewardship.
2. Lead strategic marketing.
3. Manage finances for growth.
4. Lead effectively across contexts.
5. Steward power with ethics and accountability.
6. Build leadership pipelines.
