Program Overview

The Hybrid Dual Degree pairs the Master of Arts in Deliverance and Spiritual Warfare with the Doctor of Ministry in Prophetic and Seer Studies in one continuous program of 63 credits instead of 72. The Master of Arts in Deliverance and Spiritual Warfare advances students in the theology of spiritual warfare, the spirit world in Second Temple literature, the relationship between deliverance and mental health, and the training of ministry teams. The Doctor of Ministry in Prophetic and Seer Studies is a professional doctorate for leaders who train prophetic communities and bring a prophetic voice to culture.

How EACU Is Different

Deliverance is often taught from one person's experience. EACU examines it from every side: what Scripture states, what 1 Enoch and other ancient texts describe about the spirit world, how the church has practiced deliverance across history and traditions, and where mental health care must be part of the picture. All power originates with the Most High, and students learn to minister from that foundation.

At the doctoral level, EACU students become the ones who walk others through the evidence. Every course requires students to examine a question from every side, then build and defend their own position, and the doctoral project turns that work into something that can be taught, published, or put into practice.

How the dual degree works. Nine doctoral credits count toward both degrees. The master's degree is conferred after the Master's Portion and the Shared Courses are complete (36 credits). The Doctor of Ministry is conferred after the Doctoral Portion is complete (36 doctoral credits, including the shared courses). Students need a completed bachelor's degree to enter.

Please note: Students learn to discern between spiritual, emotional, and medical needs and to refer to licensed professionals when appropriate. This degree does not lead to state licensure or professional certification in counseling or health care.
