Program Overview

The Master of Arts in Apostolic Leadership prepares leaders to oversee networks, multiply ministries, and govern with integrity across cultures.

How EACU Is Different

Apostolic ministry is often defined by titles. EACU examines it from every side: what Scripture states about the apostolic office, how Acts and Paul model it, how apostolic movements have operated across history, and what healthy authority and accountability look like. Students reach and defend their own understanding of the apostolic call.

At the graduate level, students weigh the biblical text, ancient witnesses, research, and later interpretation side by side, then build and defend their own position with scholarly rigor while remaining grounded in the foundation of truth.

> Required in every EACU degree: Biblical Interpretation (Rightly Dividing the Word), Biblical Finance and Stewardship, and Biblical Mindset and Mental Health. Every course is built with visual, auditory, reading and writing, and hands-on learning.

Program Outcomes

1. Articulate a theology of apostolic ministry.
2. Lead networks and movements.
3. Multiply churches and ministries.
4. Govern with ethics and accountability.
5. Complete and defend graduate-level research or an applied project.
